Mr. Sharon is greatly annoyed by the present decision, but has not the slightest idea of submission, and, of course, will appeal, and we are confident of reversing the decision. The suit brought by Sharon in the United States circuit court, to have the marriage contract declared invalid, will be prosecuted."

Plaintiff's counsel in the Sharon divorce case, says of Judge Sullivan's decision: "It is an entire surprise to the profession, both as to law and facts. The judgment, if it stands, will not be of serious pecuniary injury to Sharon. I don't think he has $10,000 worth of property which could be made subject to the decision. Mr. Sharon is greatly annoyed by the present decision, but has not the slightest idea of submission, and, of course, will appeal, and we are confident of reversing the decision. The suit brought by Sharon in the United States circuit court, to have the marriage contract declared invalid, will be prosecuted."

Plaintiff's counsel in the Sharon divorce case will make application for counse fees and $5,000 a month alimony for fourteen months since the beginning of the case.

Sallie Hill Gets a Decree, and the Old Man Gets Left.

San Francisco, December 24.—The celebrated Sharon divorce case has been decided in favor of the plaintiff. The suit as brought by plaintiff, Miss Sarah Althea Hill, claiming to be the wife of ex-Senstor Sharon, was for divorce and a division of the community property. Judge Sullivan's decision is very comprehensive, and contains 26,000 words. After reviewing the testimony, he constituted in the members of the committee on rivers and harbors, who will remain here during the recess, have been authorized to continue their consideration of the appropriation bill for rivers and harbors, so that it may be reported to the House as soon after the reassembling of Congress as possible. It is expected that the bill will be completed by January 12th, and the appropriation will amount to about $10,000,000.

CHICAGO, December 24.—The Times prints the following: "The following paragraph appeared in the New York Tribane on Saturday:

"The trank line executive committee held a short session yesterday, devoted to the consideration of routine business. The request of the Trans-Continental Association for the continuance of the present agreement to January 31st, 1885, was not considered, as later advices received from Chicago as later advices received from Chicago proposed another conference on the disputed question, over which the trunk lines and association are at variance. A conference will be held next Monday or Tuesday. It was impossible yesterday to find any Chicago officials who had been advised of another conference regarding the California business. It is the general belief, however, that the Central Pacific, who own the Sunset route, made such a proposition to the trunk line joint executive committee, and are probably now in New York for the purpose of further consultation with the trunk lines. All that is required to arrange the existing troubles is an understanding betweenithe Sunset route and trunk lines to allow the east and west lines between New York and San Understanding betweenithe Sunset route and trunk lines to allow the east and west lines between New York and San Understanding betweenithe Sunset route and trunk lines to allow the east and west lines between New York and San Understanding betweenithes of the proposition to the trunk lines to allow the east and third the trunk lines to allow the east and west lines between New York and San Understanding betweenithes of the proposition to the trunk lines to allow the east and the remainder report lower prices, ranging from 5 to 30 per cent. below those of 1883.
